at SCGSG

Life after A-Levels:

An A-Level in Spanish is a highly regarded and marketable qualification whether proceeding on to higher education or work. Successful candidates will be well-prepared to use the language for practical communication in all levels of commerce and industry.

The qualification provides a good foundation for further language studies in higher education (degree level or equivalent), either in language courses or for translating/ interpreting/ teaching.

Did you know?

Spanish is the second most widely-spoken language in the world with over 400 million speakers. It's also one of the most spoken languages in Europe. Being able to speak Spanish can provide you with numerous academic and career opportunities.

An introduction to Spanish

The course offered by the Spanish Department will build on the knowledge acquired at GCSE level. The skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing will be further developed through the study of a range of topic areas. The language used will be increasingly accurate, complex and varied.

A-Level Assessment:

Paper 1	Listening, Reading & Writing	50%
Paper 2	Writing on a film and a novel	20%
Paper 3	Speaking	30%

Why learn a language?

Travel

Even a little knowledge of the language can make a difference in attitude when you meet people from other countries. Speaking another language helps to break down barriers.

Work and business

It can help you give an added advantage in your career if you work for an international firm or a company with international customers or contacts.

Music, film, arts and culture

If you like literature, films or music from other countries, learning the language will help your appreciation and understanding.

Enjoyment!
