

Year 12 Biology Summer Work Instructions

In preparation for September we would like you to read through the pages attached on the practical part of the course. This is crucial in A level Biology. Please complete all of the questions on the pages for your first lesson in September. One of your teachers will lead a discussion in their first lesson with you about the topics covered.

Mr Pockson